Dividend Payment Currency Election, Payment Election

Please be advised that future dividends in Somero Enterprises, Inc. will now have the option of being paid in two currencies, GBP and USD. In addition, there is also the option of being paid by Cheque or through Crest for either currency and additionally via BACS for GBP payments.

Forms can be found at <https://www-uk.computershare.com/investor/formscatalogue.asp>

Currency Election

The default currency for future dividends is USD. Should you wish to receive payments in GBP, please complete the currency election form and return to Computershare at the address on the form. Currency elections can also be made through Crest.

If no election is made, you will receive your dividends in USD.

Payment Method

The default for future dividend payments is by Cheque. For payments in USD, Crest holders can elect to receive their payments through the Crest system.

For holders that have elected to receive GBP payments the default payment method is via Cheque. In addition to the above options, holders electing for GBP can also choose to have payments through Crest or direct into a bank account via BACS. To have the dividend payment made via BACS, please complete the included Bank Mandate form and return to Computershare at the address provided on the form or make the appropriate election via Crest.

Should no election be made, you will receive your payment via Cheque.
